

Fuchsia Society Slates Annual Fall Festival

The Lomita Fuchsia Society will hold its annual Fall Festival to be held November 18, Friday at the American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne ave. The affair is the club's only fund raising event and is open to the public. The hours are from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Chairman of the Fall Festival, Mrs. Victor Bittner, will be hostess to the festival committee and members of the executive board at her home 25322 Feijoa ave. on Wednesday, November 16, at 7:30 p.m. when final details will be decided.

Mrs. Ed Shurgot reports that her section has many lovely Christmas gifts and a large selection of home-sewn dresses, shirts and pajamas for boys and girls.

The bakery section under Mrs. Kermit Gluth is assured of a well stocked selection of home-made pies, cakes, cookies and candies.

Mrs. A. Eiorriaga has charge of the country store. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper will supply gardeners' needs. A grab bag with Mrs. M. Monge in charge and a fish pond under Mrs. A. Alonge will be for children.

The regular meeting open to the public will begin at 8 p.m. at which time a portable barbecue, a Rain King sprinkler, an electric iron and a $5 fish order will be given away.

Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Sylvia Leatherman of El Monte, an authority on ferns and contributor to various gardening magazines.

Mrs. Leatherman will discuss "Ferns in our Garden." A plant exchange will follow and refreshments will be served.

Halldale PTA Paper Drive

A "Blitz One-Day Paper Drive" has been scheduled for Halldale Avenue school Wednesday, November 23. All proceeds of the drive will go into the student fund for current needs.

The association meeting will be held today at 1:30 p.m. Topic will be "Home Team Huddle." Program will feature floral displays and gift wrapping.

MAKING PLANS FOR THE YWCA fashion show to be held Tuesday, November 15, are (l-r) Mrs. Raymond Stewart, co-chairman; Mrs.

Y-Wives Say "It's A Woman's World" When She's In Style

"It's a Woman's World" will be the theme of the fashion show presented by the Y-Wives Tuesday, November 15, at the YWCA, 2320 Carson.

The curtain will rise at 10 a.m., on colorful fall and winter fashions from the Gay Shop, for every hour of the day, said Mrs. Warren Randall, chairman of the event.

The showing will feature professional models under the direction of Mrs. Desiree of Compton. She will do the commenting, and the entire production will be in the manner of top-flight fashion showings.

Special models for the children's fashions will be Karen Swanson, 3, and Ronald Swanson, 5, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swanson.

On the committee are: Mrs. Carl Swanson, hospitality chairman, Mrs. Robert Tan, publicity chairman, Mrs. Yolanda Stewart, Mrs. Milton Huber, and Mrs. Janice Young.

There will be sport clothes, casual costumes, afternoon and evening dresses, and the distinctive Lilli Ann suits shown.

Mrs. Tan, secretary, said that Paul Diamond of the Gay Shop feels that smart clothes are much more colorful this year, which will please husbands, the Y-Wives believe.

The colors emphasize avocado greens, blues and lilacs in various shades.

Door prizes will be given and refreshments served.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the Torrance YWCA or Mrs. Robert Tan, 4212 West 173rd street or they may be obtained at the YWCA at the time of the show.

Carrolltons Scheduled for Early Meeting

The Carrollton club speakers will be featured at a breakfast to be presented by the Nativity Holy Name society Sunday, November 13.

The Carrollton organization commemorates the memory of Charles Carroll, prominent Catholic patriot, who was one of the original signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Activities of the Carrollton club are similar to those of a toastmasters group. Their discussion topics center on the various aspects of Catholic beliefs and customs.

The breakfast will be served in the parish hall immediately following the 8 o'clock Mass.

It is not restricted to Holy Name society members only but all men and boys of the Nativity Parish are invited to attend, said Frank Kristufek.

Rehearsals Begin For 'Hat Party'

The publicity committee of the Women of the Moose has begun rehearsal of the play they are going to present at the Christmas "Hat Party" on December 21.

Each person at the party will wear a funny hat reflecting some phase of the holiday season. There will be prizes for men, women, and children.

The pupils of other Lambriger will entertain as part of the program.

At the regular meeting of the Women of the Moose, Grace Ryan was initiated into the chapter. Her sponsor was Edna Harbison.

Tentative plans were made for a trip to China Town.

Circle Sets Sale - Bazaar

Women's Missionary association Circle of the Gardena Missionary Baptist church, 16121 Orchard ave., are planning a rummage sale and bazaar to be held Friday, November 11, at Dana's Style Center in Waverly, reported Mrs. J. W. Stephens of the local Victory Circle.

A turkey dinner will be held

Two Parties Are Better Than One

Last week was party week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cobb, Jr., 3536 West 187th St.

The birthdays of their daughters, Ellen, 8, and Linda, 6, come one day after the other, and they each had separate Halloween birthday parties.

Linda's guest list included her classmates from Crenshaw school; Karen Mosher, Bunny Trudel, Jerry and Dickie Mansker, Teresa Phillips, Connie Comer, Freddie & Janice Remtz, Gary Hiltgen, Becky Farreze, Kathy Kathleen Kelley, Cheryl DuBois, Toddie Grove, and Linda's sister Ellen and Jeanette.

Ellen's guests were: Kathleen Kelley, Georgia Theis, Ann Reno, Carol Dolan, Karen Masher, Karen Peterson, Emily Mendoza, Sue Smith, and Marilyn Makimoto.

The feature of both parties was a scavenger hunt.

Dinner Held for Nursery Building Fund

Torrance Cooperative nursery school gave a buffet dinner at the American Legion hall in Redondo Beach last week.

The proceeds will benefit the school's building fund and the group hopes to see commencement of building in the very near future said Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgan, co-chairmen of the ways and means committee.

On the party planning committee were Mr. and Mrs. Arlyn Swenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boulton were in charge of tickets, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Belzer made arrangements for music, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Gruen were in charge of the food committee.

Delphians to Hold Group Discussion

The Delphian society will hold its fourth meeting of the year today at 10 a.m., in the Torrance library, to discuss the topic "Population—Room for All."

This discussion will particularize their general theme for study which is world affairs.

Leader of the discussion is Mrs. Robert MacNicol. Opening speakers will be: Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mrs. P. W. Cockrell, Mrs. H. G. Babcock, Mrs. J. S. Dresser, and Mrs. D. J. Quinlivan.

at the church on Saturday, November 19. Proceeds from the dinner will go to the building fund.

Both events are open to the public.

Psychiatrist Will Lecture

Dr. Simon F. Conrad, director and chief psychiatrist of the California mental hygiene clinic in Los Angeles will speak at the next association meeting of the Lomita Elementary PTA, on Friday, November 18.

His subject will be "The emotional Problems of Children." Mrs. Morris Chamberlain, chairman of the Halloween fun fair, announced that the funds collected from the affair and from the recent paper drive would be divided equally between the PTA and the school.

Wedding Bells Ring For Nadine Madrid

A little girl plays with a doll dressed in white and a tiny scrap of lace on her head. A little girl stands before a mirror and drapes a froth of white about her, and she plays that she is a bride. She dreams of a fairy princess in a dress of silver and a shining crown; and then one day she wakes to find that dreams do come true.

Like a fabled princess, Miss Nadine Marcella Madrid came down the aisle dressed in a gown of gleaming white, frosted with lace, and, on her head, she wore a tiny crown which sparkled silver light from each tiny glittering point. Her veil of imported illusion floated about her in misty whiteness, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and white orchids.

Waiting for her at the altar was the groom, David Robin Holstrom, standing with his best man, Gary Knuutila. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Madrid of 2048 West 250th st., Lomita; and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holstrom of 1710 244th st., Torrance.

The wedding took place at Saint Margaret Mary's church on Saturday, November 5, at 2 p.m.

Attendants Miss Christine Madrid, the maid of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of aqua nylon net over taffeta; and carried a bouquet of white roses and pink apple blossoms.

Bridesmaids, Miss Rita Ruiz and Miss Eileen Burrell, wore ballerina length gowns of light blue taffeta; and Miss Elenor Dreger and Mrs. Dolores Trampus wore ballerina-length gowns of shrimp colored taffeta. All carried bouquets of white roses and pink apple blossoms.

Groomsmen The ushers were: Tommy Myers, Larry Henan, Ronnie Hall, and Malcolm Weyant.

Miss Elsie Ann Madrid and Miss Becky Holstrom were in charge of the guest book. The soloist was Frank Alagarme and the organist was Mrs. Butterfield. The music chosen for the ceremony included "Ave Maria," "On This Day," "Oh, Beautiful Mother," and "Panis Angelicus."

The reception was held in the recreation hall of the church. The couple left on a trip to Reno, Sacramento, and Las Vegas.

Both the bride and groom attended Harbor Junior college. The couple plan to reside in Lomita.
